Call for Papers

The Spectrum: A Peer-reviewed Interdisciplinary Journal (SPIJ) announces a call for papers for the upcoming issue (Vol.3, No.1, April 2025) published by Triton International College, Koteshwor, Kathmandu-32. A paper submitted to be published in the journal must be an original work, not previously published or borrowed other's work. All submissions to this journal undergo first initial editor screening and then rigorous peer-review, reviewed by two anonymous reviewers. Indexed in NepJol, the journal is an open access journal that covers a wide range of disciplines.

The prospective authors should strictly follow the guidelines mentioned in the journal site (<https://tritoncollege.edu.np/tic-journal/authors/guidelines>) while preparing their manuscripts for submission. Only electronic copy of the manuscripts sent to the journal's email at research@triton.edu.np will be accepted for the review process. The upcoming issue shall follow the given timelines:

- Submission Deadline: 5th February, 2025
- Notification of Acceptance: 1st April, 2025
- Publication Date: 25th April, 2025

NB: All the manuscripts submitted to The Spectrum get through a phase of plagiarism test prior to their peer review process.
